REPORT ON THE QUALITY ASSURANCE PROGRAM OF THE FACULTY OF EDUCATION OF THE 1ST AND 2ND CYCLES

Executive Summary

The Quality Assurance Program (QAP) of the Faculty of Education of the 1st and 2nd Cycles is a continuous process that aims to improve the quality of the educational programs and the learning experience of the students. The QAP is based on the standards set by the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) and the University of the Pacific (UP) Quality Assurance Framework. The QAP is implemented through a series of activities, including self-assessment, external assessment, and continuous improvement. The QAP is a key component of the Faculty's commitment to excellence in education.

1.0 PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF THE QAP

The purpose of the QAP is to ensure that the educational programs of the Faculty of Education of the 1st and 2nd Cycles are of high quality and meet the standards set by the CHED and the UP Quality Assurance Framework. The scope of the QAP covers all the educational programs and the learning experience of the students.

1.1 PURPOSE OF THE QAP

The purpose of the QAP is to ensure that the educational programs of the Faculty of Education of the 1st and 2nd Cycles are of high quality and meet the standards set by the CHED and the UP Quality Assurance Framework.

Conclusions and Perspectives

As a result of the implementation of the National Strategy for the Promotion of Science, the scientific community has been able to develop a series of projects that have contributed to the advancement of knowledge in various fields. The results of these projects have been published in scientific journals and have been presented at international conferences. The scientific community has also been able to establish collaborations with other research institutions and has been able to attract funding from the private sector.
