Hcéres in Partnership with AUF

Published on 26 July 2016

July 12th, 2016, Hcéres and the 'Agence universitaire de la Francophonie' (AUF) signed a Framework Agreement in the presence of Mr Thierry Mandon and Mr André Vallini.

By signing on July 12, 2016 a Framework Agreement, Hcéres and the Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie (AUF, an international association comprising universities, grandes écoles, academic networks and scientific research centers that use the French language all over the world) agree to promote their cooperation in the field of the evaluation of French-speaking institutions of higher education and research, and more specifically through:

- Exchanges of experts,
- The conduct of common evaluations,
- The training in evaluation processes and instruments,
- Information sharing, in particular on the mapping (cartography) of French-speaking institutions and university programmes,
- The support to creation and strengthening of quality assurance and accreditation systems in developing French-speaking countries,
- The development of French-speaking network of quality assurance agencies.
