

You are here : International

International

Hcéres is the French public service agency responsible for periodically evaluating all the country's higher education and research establishments under contract with the State, their programmes (bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees) and their research entities. It also evaluates research bodies and groups of institutions. Working within a European framework, Hcéres is recognised by ENQA and is listed in the EQAR register of quality agencies.

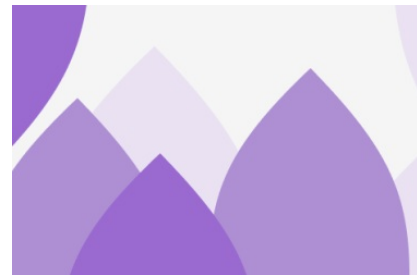

Europe and International Department

The Europe and International Department ensures Hcéres is positioned as a leading French player engaged on the international scene. It actively participates in European debates and projects relating t...

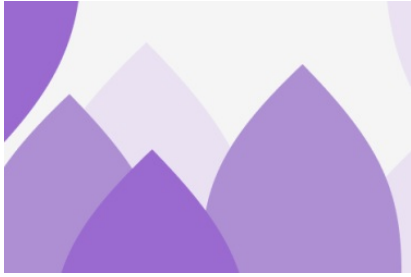

Evaluations and accreditation

Hcéres provides two successive and correlated services: external evaluation and international accreditation. These services are offered in French, English or Spanish....

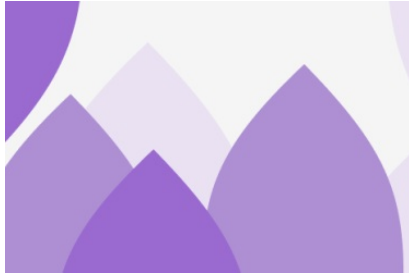

Training and services

Hcéres has extensive experience in providing expertise to foreign countries or agencies that request its support in defining or refining their quality assurance policy, organising training or providin...

Networks and partnerships

The Europe and International Department plays an active role in international cooperation networks, and develops strategic relationships with stakeholders in the higher education and research sectors....

International news and publications

Find out all the latest news from the Europe and International Department....