

News

INTERNATIONAL

External quality assurance of research in higher education institutions : taking stock of the practices of European quality assurance

On the occasion of the publication of the working group's final report on the external quality assurance of research, this article presents its objectives and the main positions the Hcéres among its European counterparts.

Published on 25 March 2025