

You are here : Home ▢ News ▢ Research integrity monitoring

RESEARCH INTEGRITY

Research integrity monitoring

Published on 29 April 2020

In a joint message, the CNRS Ethics Committee (COMETS) and the CNRS Research Integrity Task Force have set out the principles inherent to scientific and biomedical research in these times of health crisis: compliance with humanist ethical rules and an approach that guarantees research of a reliable, rigorous and honest nature.

➤ Access the CNRS' latest news on "Research in times of health crisis: ethical debates and respect for scientific integrity" 